

Postscript to LIG Notes 24th February 2022

Since Local Interest Group on Feb 24th Cherry has received loads of interest regarding the Powell Tuck family. Most had very close connections to the families who actually farmed Castle Farm and Cherry has received some wonderful photographs which she would like to share to bring the story alive.

William Powell Tuck (1829-1900). William lived and farmed at Castle farm for the whole of his life. After his father died in 1844 it was he and his mother who took over the reins.

William Powell Tuck Snr and his son William Powell Tuck (1865-1909) standing. William farmed alongside his father and continued until his untimely death in 1909.

Thomas Powell Tuck (born 1862) and his wife Annie. Thomas was William senior's son who returned to Castle Farm when brother William died in 1909. He farmed Castle Farm until 1919 when the Maesllwch Estate farms were sold.
